the Sippican Woman's Club in their newly decorated clubhouse. Using a map of the Southeast Asia area to show 'where the action is' Captain Adams gave a very informative picture of the difficulties in the Vietnam War. He also said it was one of the most beautiful countries in the world and that the Vietnamese people were wonderful - and that, on the whole, appreciate very much what the United States is doing for them. He also said "It makes you feel a little closer to your own country if you go out there and fight for it". Captain Adams flew 642 hours in combat while in Vietnam and holds the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Force Commendation medal and the Air Medal with ten oak leaf clusters.

Mrs. C. Joseph Nowak presided - and after the Pledge of Allegiance and singing of "America the Beautiful", Mrs. Eldon Hambly read a prayer honoring all the servicemen from the American Legion Auxiliary magazine for May.

Mrs. John L. MacNeil told the story of Sir Robert Barry, whose portrait was recently donated to the club. Mrs. Howard Patterson had Hamre, of Falmouth, a staff member at Tobey, Jordan and Falmouth Hospitals, told the membership that all men over 40 owe it to their families and themselves to get a complete physical examination yearly. Dr. Hamre, a urologic surgeon, spoke on the prostate gland, its functioning and malfunctioning. "The chief difficulty," Dr. Hamre noted, "is to act when the individual experiences prostate trouble. Getting to the doctor immediately is the answer -- not waiting and delaying." His statistics were sobering, yet reassuring for a man who acts. "Of every 100 men who have prostate trouble, 85 are free from malignant growths. But of the 15 with the cancerous growths, 14 inevitably die." At the earliest sign of difficulty, Dr. Hamre advised

He also relayed what has become another grim possibility -- that the evidence, while not conclusive, strongly indicates that cancer of the bladder is linked to heavy cigarette smoking. ### MATT. GIRL HONORED AT SHOWER

A surprise bridal shower was held on Sunday afternoon, April 9th, at the Rochester Woman's Club for Miss Carol Ann Wordell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Wordell, 2nd of 9 Oakland Street, Mattapoisett. Hostess was Carol's aunt, Mrs. Richard E. Cole, of North Street, Mattapoisett. Nearly forty guests from New Bedford, Marion, Rochester, Mattapoisett, Middleboro, North Attleboro, Boston, South Berlin and South Dartmouth attended.

The hall was decorated in pink and white streamers with wedding bells. The bride-to-be was seated in a chair decorated in the same colors over which hung a large confetti bell. Gifts were placed in a wishing well, made and decorated by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Gladis Ouelette.

In charge of the guest book were Mrs. Wordell and Mrs. Ouelette.

The refreshment table was decorated with a pink and white linen tablecloth, bridal doll and milk glass candleholders with pink candles. Presiding at the punch bowl was Miss Sharon Cobb, cousin of the bride.

Assorted sandwiches, tray cakes, potato chips, pickles and olives and coffee were served. Upon departure each guest received a favor cup of mints with a wedding ring at-

Cowsills Return

COWSILLS TO APPEAR AT OLD ROCHESTER

The Cowsills are coming! Those fabulous musical brothers from Newport, Rhode Island will give a two hour concert in Gilbert D. Bristol auditorium May 17th, Wednesday, at 7:30 P.M. Modern musicmakers extraordinary, the Cowsills are appearing once again at Old Rochester Regional High School at the invitation of the school's Key Club and the Kiwanis Club of Marion and Mattapoisett. All proceeds will go to the Key Club and Kiwanis Scholarship Funds. Anybody who saw the Cowsills last spring remembers their tremendous sounds and the antics of brothers Barry and John. Barry 13 and John 11 never stop moving --- Barry around the stage and John on his drums. But there's Bill and Bob, too. Bill is the leader of the Cowsills on stage and the oldest brother of the Cowsills off stage at 19. Everybody likes Bob. He is funny-dumb at times, and full of surprises from one minute to the next. He likes to tease Bill. Put them all on stage together and you have the Cowsills, one of the U. S.'s fastest rising young musical teams.

ATTENDING YWCA CONVENTION

Six women and one Y-Teen from New Bedford YWCA are in Boston attending the 24th National Convention of the Young Women's Christian Association of the U.S.A. The local delegation includes: Mrs. Erma E. DeBoer, executive director; Mrs. Edward T. Sears and Mrs. George Grimes, members of the Board of Directors; Mrs. Carolyn Baker, director of adult program; Mrs. Phyllis Barrows, director of neighborhood program; Miss Carol Avery, chairman of the Teen World Fellowship Committee; and Mrs. Grace Young, director of teenage and USO programs.

Held once every three years, the national convention is the time for legislative action on the YWCA's program priorities, on the national public affairs platform, and on new developments in the area of leadership development.

The 1967 convention's legislative sessions include also a report of the National Commission of Study the YWCA as a Christian Movement, including the Commission's position paper and rewording of the Association's purpose which will be placed before the delegates for an official vote. Throughout the country, YWCAs have been participating in this study in local as well as regional assemblies, using as their resources the nationally produced "Guides for Participation," as well as representatives of the various faiths and leaders in the ecumenical movement.

Mrs. Victor Twiraga of the Marion Garden Club would like to remind people of this area of the Massachusetts Anti-Littering Laws. The law provides a $50.00 fine for disposing of garbage, refuse, bottles, cans or rubbish along a highway. A $100.00 fine and 30-day sentence is the penalty for throwing a flaming or glowing substance from any vehicle. Glass dropped or thrown on a street or bathing beach draws a fine of not more than $50.00 or imprisonment for not more than one month.

BOY SCOUT ACTIVITIES

The revised schedule of Mattapoisett Boy Scout Troop 53 activities for the remainder of the year is as follows: Monday, May 1, regular meeting; Friday and Saturday, May 5 & 6, camp-out; Monday, May 8, review board; Monday, May 15, final meeting and court of awards.
